

Rec Hall Bio

Rec Hall is an indie band from southern California formed by lifelong friends John Barry (guitar/vocals), Lance Meliota (drums), and Ben Tyrell (guitar/bass). This trio, often described as “beachy,” fuses funky rhythms and post-punk tones to form their sound.

Rec Hall recently hit the road with lovelytheband, performing their debut single “She Doesn’t Get It” along with other upcoming tunes. Since returning from tour, Rec Hall has been hard at work writing and recording. They are currently gearing up for the release of their first EP and looking forward to more touring in 2022.
